

The Global Health Technologies Coalition in cooperation with Senator Patty Murray
and
The Congressional Biomedical Research Caucus invites you to

Innovation in action: Advancing new tools to combat global health diseases

Wednesday, April 21, 2010, 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.
Kennedy Caucus Room (SR 325), Russell Senate Office Building

Lunch will be provided. Following the program, guests will have the opportunity to browse interactive displays from nonprofit groups and learn about the latest in global health research.

Featured speakers

Nils Daulaire, MD, MPH

Director, Office of Global Health Affairs, Department of Health and Human Services

Maria Freire, PhD

President, Albert and Mary Lasker Foundation

Member, Advisory Committee to the Director of the National Institutes of Health

Member, Committee on the US Commitment to Global Health, Institute of Medicine

Panelists

Christy Hanson, PhD, MPH

Chief, Infectious Disease Division, Bureau for Global Health, United States Agency for International Development

Michael Johnson, MD, MPH

Deputy Director, Fogarty International Center, National Institutes of Health

Former HHS liaison to the President's Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief (PEPFAR) at the Office of Global Health Affairs

Sylvie Kwedi, MPH, MS

Founder and President, CLEAR, Inc. (Capacity for Leadership Excellence and Research)

Former Deputy Director for Site Development and Epidemiology, Aeras Global TB Vaccine Foundation

To RSVP, please contact Megan Miller at info@ghtcoalition.org or 202.822.0033

Global Health Technologies Coalition

This event is free and open to the public, and the invitation has been widely distributed in compliance with congressional ethics rules.

For more information, visit www.ghtcoalition.org